

Decorate the pictures with crayons or markers and cut along the dotted lines. Attach each picture to one end of a piece of yarn or string. Punch two holes in the center of a large paper plate and thread yarn through to make a hanging loop. Attach the strings with the pictures around the rim of the paper plate to make a mobile. Grown-up note: Polaroid pictures of children may be used. Let them practice different facial expressions.

